

Notice of Privacy Practices

This notice describes how medical information about you may be used or disclosed and how you can get access to information. Please review it carefully.

Proximal 50 Life Center Legal Duty

Proximal 50 Life Center is required by law to protect the privacy of your personal health information, provide this notice about our information practices, and follow the information practices that are described herein.

Uses and Disclosures of Health Information

Proximal 50 Life Center uses your personal health information primarily for treatment; obtaining payment for treatment; conducting internal administrative activities and evaluating the quality of care that we provide. For example, Proximal 50 Life Center may use your personal health information to contact you to provide appointment reminders, or information about treatment alternatives or other health related benefits that could be of interest to you.

Proximal 50 Life Center may also use or disclose your personal health information without prior authorization for public health purposes, for auditing purposes, for research studies and for emergencies. We also provide information when required by law.

In any other situation, Proximal 50 Life Center's policy is to obtain your written authorization before disclosing your personal health information. If you provide us with written authorization to release your information for any reason, you may later revoke that authorization to stop future disclosures at any time.

Patient's Individual Rights

You have the right to review or obtain a copy of your personal health information at any time. You have the right to request that we correct any inaccurate or incomplete information in your records. You also have the right to request a list of instances where we have disclosed your personal health information for reasons other than treatment, payment or other related administrative purposes.

You may also request in writing that we not use or disclose your personal health information for treatment, payment, and administrative purposes except when specifically authorized by you, when required by law or in emergency circumstances. Proximal 50 Life Center will consider all such requests on a case by case basis, but the practice is not legally required to accept them.

Concerns and Complaints

If you are concerned that Proximal 50 Life Center may have violated your privacy rights or if you disagree with any decisions we have made regarding access or disclosure of your personal health information, please contact our Business Office Director at the address listed below. You may also send a written complaint to the US Department of Health and Human Services.
